

Summary of Coursework in Year 10-11

	English	English Literature	Geography	History	Technology / Graphics / Systems Control	Art	Music
Coursework	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes
Percentage of total marks	40% 20% coursework and 20% orals.	30%.	25%.	25%.	60%.	60%.	60%.
Timescale	Boys will submit four written assignments from the beginning of Year 10 to about April of Year 11.	3 assignments are submitted. Two will be cross over assignments. The third piece is on 20th Century drama.	Start June Year 10 and handed in before October half term in Year 11. Most of the work to be completed before the summer holiday. Teacher led assignment on Urban Development and Land use in Lancaster.	Two pieces each 12.5%. Firstly, an essay focussing on aspects of the second world war to be submitted before November Year 11. (Deadline specified by subject teacher.) Secondly, a source related question on the Vietnam War to be completed March Year 11.	Deadline is April Year 11. Last day before the Easter holiday	Portfolio work is on going over Year 10/11.	30% is for composition and 30% for performance. This is on going throughout the two year course.
Other Information	Two of the written assignments will be cross over pieces. These will be on Shakespeare and a Prose piece. These cross over pieces will be submitted for assessment in both English and English Literature.	Boys are encouraged to submit rough drafts. Comments and advice will be given on coursework. There will be opportunities to resubmit assignments.	Research and Investigation to be done in class and for homework. Timetable is on the internet and sent to parents. Write up is guided weekly.	Advice given to all pupils. Details on the history area of the LRGS website. Teachers set structured research tasks starting in the summer term year 10 including tasks to complete over the summer.	A detailed week by week timetable is issued to all boys. Coursework and projects are on going. Detailed schedules for RM/SC and Graphics are on the Technology website.	Coursework to be done in class and for homework.	Minimum of two Compositions should be done as early as possible. The Sibellius programme is used for composition.