

Careers information websites

General sites

- <https://www.unifrog.org/>

Platform used in school to support pupils with comparing university courses, apprenticeships and Further Education courses. Also provides structured support with applications.

- <https://nationalcareersservice.direct.gov.uk>

Over 800 job profiles telling you what a job involves and how to get into it. Help with CVs and interview advice.

- <https://www.startprofile.com/>

Careers site for 11–21-year-old students. Create a personal profile to help identify jobs and training that will suit you. Explore jobs to find out what you could do. Explore different qualifications and training routes.

- www.planitplus.net

Helps you match your subjects with possible careers, has a course-matching page to aid you in identifying courses relevant to your career interests.

- <http://www.prospects.ac.uk>

This website is designed for people already at university, but it contains useful information for younger students too. One useful section is the "Careers Advice" section. Choose your likely degree subjects (one at a time) and the website will give you ideas of graduate jobs you could consider. You can also find out about the skills you will develop from studying a specific subject.

- <https://successatschool.org/>

Useful careers guidance and careers zone focused on different jobs, what to study and how to get in that job

- <https://advice.milkround.com/tips/school-leavers>

A career resource hub targeted at school and college leavers aged 16 to 18. Lots of information about careers, universities and apprenticeship options and associated support and guidance.

- <http://www.talkingjobs.net/>

An online video player that delivers a series of career case studies.

- <https://www.push.co.uk/>

Push Talks are unique to any other school talk you have ever seen. They use comedy and storytelling to relate their deep expertise on higher and further education, careers, skills and employability.

- www.icould.com

icould gives you the inside story of how careers work. The icould storytellers relate their real-life career journeys. There are over a thousand easy to search, varied and unique career videos as well as hundreds of written articles. There are also quizzes to support your search and provide suggestions.

- www.careersbox.co.uk

Watch videos of people talking about a wide variety of job roles.

- www.mycareerspringboard.org

My Career Springboard is a FREE careers guidance tool for school & college students.

- <http://www.parentalguidance.org.uk/>

Careers information, advice and guidance from the Career Writers Association

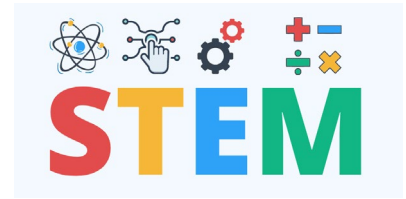

- <https://www.careersadviceforparents.org/>

Useful resources around guiding your teen to choose their future career path, the available learning and training and how to get into work.

Generic STEM:

- <http://www.futuremorph.org/>

Career information relating to science and maths, broken down into age categories for students with additional support for parents, teachers and careers staff.

Mechanical, Engineering or Construction:

- www.careersinquarrying.co.uk

Quarrying gives us the rock, sand and gravel we need for places to live, work and play. Are you mapping out your future? If so, you might like to take a closer look at an industry many of us take for granted and the careers there are. Look beneath the surface and you will find a vibrant, high tech and environmentally responsible industry that offers a host of exciting and rewarding challenges.

- www.autocity.org.uk

View useful information on careers and apprenticeships in the motor industry.

- www.etrust.org.uk

EDT (Engineering Development Trust) is the largest provider of STEM (science, technology, engineering and mathematics) enrichment activities for UK youth. It provides opportunities for 11–21-year-olds to enhance their technical, personal and employability skills through industry-led projects, industrial placements and specialised courses. They develop partnerships, build links between education and industry and help organisations reach talent and connect with young engineers and scientists across the UK.

- <http://www.tomorrowsengineers.org.uk/>

Provides advice on what is engineering, things to consider and approaches to take in developing the skills required to become an engineer.

- www.goconstruct.org

Considering a career in construction? Explore and use the online tools to find out what a career in construction can offer you, whether you are starting out or considering a career change.

- <http://housebuildingcareers.org.uk/>

Guidance and job roles in house building such as bricklaying, carpentry, quantity surveying, sales advisor, roofer and others. Describes typical tasks, earning potential, qualifications and career path.

- <http://www.myoilandgascareer.com/>

This site is aiming to be the careers information site for the oil and gas industry. The site is owned and managed by OPITO, the skills body for the oil and gas sector that also offer training courses and details on apprenticeships and training providers.

Science and the Environment:

- <http://www.iop.org/careers/index.html>

Institute of Physics for ideas and advice on careers using physics.

- <https://www2.physics.ox.ac.uk/about-us/outreach/schools/work-experience>

The Department of Physics at Oxford University offers a limited number of work placements for Year 10 to Year 13.

- <http://www.rsc.org/careers/future/career-options>

Royal Society of Chemistry for ideas and careers using chemistry

- <https://www.rsb.org.uk/careers-and-cpd>

Royal Society of Biology for ideas and careers using biology

- <https://www.metoffice.gov.uk/about-us/careers/vacancies>

Find out more about working in a wide range of areas, from forecasting, observations, technology and engineering to marketing, business development or finance. Find out about the benefits and rewards you can get if you work for the Met Office.

- http://the-sra.org.uk/sra_resources/careers/

If you are looking for a career in social research this site provides general advice on who social researchers work for, training, qualifications needed and where to job search.

- <https://www.greenjobs.co.uk/>

A green jobs recruitment agency with lists of jobs in a variety of industries.

Medicine and Health:

- www.stepintothenhhs.nhs.uk

Insight into over 350 potential careers to apply for within the NHS.

- <https://www.healthcareers.nhs.uk/>

Search careers within the NHS. There is much more than just doctors and nurses and you can compare roles, their characteristics and requirements.

- <http://www.hcpc-uk.co.uk/>

Health and Care Professions Council covering Health, Psychological and Social Work careers.

- <http://www.medschools.ac.uk>

This website has lots of useful information about medical school. If you look under Studying Medicine, Resources for students and teachers, you will find information about entry requirements, different medical schools and UKCAT and BMAT.

www.medicportal.com

www.scrubbed-up.com

Founded by Medics at Manchester University

Psychology:

- <http://careersinpsychology.org/psychology-careers/>

Although this is a US site, it explains in detail different types of psychology and why it is popular and a growth area not just in the US but the UK too. There are several UK universities offering these types of courses.

- <https://www.bps.org.uk/>

Provides information including 'Discovering Psychology' and 'Becoming a Psychologist.'

IT:

- <https://www.itcareerfinder.com/it-careers.html>

An American site that provides IT career path options and skills requirements.

<https://www.cybersecuritychallenge.org.uk/careers/typical-roles>

Guidance around typical roles available in the cyber / security areas of IT.

Land-Based, Vets and Animal / Animal Care:

- <https://www.rcvs.org.uk/education/>

The Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons – gives a good overview of how to become a vet or veterinary nurse.

- <http://www.rspca.org.uk/utilities/jobs>

RSPCA website gives lots of facts about jobs in animal care and how to become an inspector

- https://www.aza.org/careers_in_zoos_and_aquariums

Association of zoos and aquariums, details on the careers available and resources to help find them

- <https://www.lantra.co.uk/jobs>

See the land-based and environmental careers. Explores Agriculture, Animal Care, Animal Technology, Aquaculture, Environmental Conservation, Equine, Farriery, Fencing, Fisheries Management, Floristry, Game & Wildlife Management, Land-based engineering, Horticulture, Landscaping & Sports Turf, Production Horticulture, Trees & Timber and Veterinary Activities.

- <https://www.careersinracing.com/explore-horseracing/>

There are many different types of jobs in the horse racing industry. This website has case studies, details about the jobs, what's involved in the jobs, qualifications, and advice.

Maths, Statistics and Accountancy:

- www.mathscareers.org.uk

Use this resource which shows the range of careers where mathematics plays a significant role.

- <https://www.statslife.org.uk/careers>

A career in statistics is a rewarding and often exciting career. If you are forward thinking, IT-savvy, interested in finding practical solutions to problems in the society and the world we live in and you enjoy working with numbers and people, this could be the career for you. The RSS's Careers in Statistics provides all you need to know about being a professional statistician.

- <https://ukcareers.ey.com/>

EY (formerly Ernst & Young) is a multinational professional services firm headquartered in London, United Kingdom. EY is one of the largest professional services firms in the world and is one of the "Big Four" accounting firms.

- <https://www.kpmgcareers.co.uk/graduates/graduate-programmes>

KPMG in the UK is part of a global network of firms that offers Audit, Tax, Consulting and Deal Advisory services, Technology and Business Services.

- <https://www.pwc.co.uk/careers.html>

A professional services firm that specialise in accounting, Audit, Tax, Consulting and Deal Advisory

- <https://www.aat.org.uk/career-in-finance>

Accountancy training company that provides vocational qualifications as an alternative to A Levels

Teaching:

- <http://www.education.gov.uk/get-into-teaching>

Look at up to date information about getting into the teaching profession. If you are interested in this career, this website is a must for you. You will find out about the different training routes and what a career in teaching has to offer.

Law:

- <https://www.law.ac.uk/futurelawyers/>

Previously the College of Law, now the University of Law. Future Lawyers Network is a resource to help current and prospective law students become successful modern lawyers. With expert advice and insight, they aim to help you understand the legal market, prepare you for interviews and manage the early stages of your career.

- www.lawcareers.net

View information about careers in law, apprenticeships and entry routes.

- <http://www.lawsociety.org.uk/law-careers/>

There are a wide variety of career options in the legal profession, the law society site looks at why you should choose a career in law, what your career choices are and how to progress

- <http://www.Beginnersguidetolaw2023>

Media and Entertainment:

- www.bbc.co.uk/careers

Everything you could possibly want to know about working for the BBC. It includes types of careers, details about work experience and internships, access to its career's hub and current vacancies.

- <https://careers.sky.com/earlycareers/>

Early careers opportunities with Sky from work experience to apprenticeships and graduate programmes.

- <http://www.nctj.com/>

The National Council for the training of journalists.

Creative / Drama / Acting:

- <https://www.screenskills.com/>

ScreenSkills is the industry-led skills charity for the screen industries. The website provides insight, career development and other opportunities to help grow and sustain the skilled and inclusive workforce which is the foundation stone of the UK's global screen success.

- <http://ccskills.org.uk>

View careers information on the creative and cultural industries. It includes craft, cultural heritage, design, libraries & archives, literature, music, theatre & dance, visual arts, advertising, animation, computer games, fashion, film, interactive media, photo imaging, publishing, radio, technical facilities and TV.

- www.spotlight.com

Today over 40,000 performers appear in Spotlight, including actors and actresses, child artists, presenters, dancers and stunt artists. As the industry's leading casting resource, Spotlight is used by most TV, Film, Radio and Theatrical companies throughout the UK, and many worldwide. Our clients range from BBC, Sky and Channel 4 through to small production companies and individual casting directors.

- <https://www.thestage.co.uk/advice/>

Careers advice and insight from industry professionals.

- <http://www.federationofdramaschools.co.uk>

The Federation of Drama Schools is a group of institutions that provide conservatoire style vocational training for those who want to be professional performers, theatre makers and technical theatre practitioners.

Fashion and Photography:

- <https://www.businessoffashion.com/careers>

The business of fashions site is dedicated to professionals in the fashion sector and promotes career opportunities.

- <http://www.ftmlondon.org/>

The Fashion and Textile Museum is an innovative centre for contemporary fashion, textiles, and jewellery in London. Founded by iconic British designer Zandra Rhodes, the centre highlights a programme of changing exhibitions exploring this world. The Academy also runs courses for creative students and businesses.

- <http://www.fashionworkie.com>

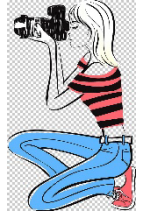

A recruitment site for fashion related work placements jobs and internships (mostly in London).

- <https://www.drapersjobs.com/article/top-10-careers-in-the-fashion-industry/>

Sustainable fashion and digital innovations in the fashion industry.

- <https://www.lyst.co.uk/articles/how-to-get-a-job-in-fashion-in-london/>

Article describing how to get jobs in Fashion.

Travel and Tourism / Working Abroad:

- <https://careers.thomascook.com/>

Gives contact information for Thomas Cook and you can search the wide range of career opportunities that the company offers.

- <http://tuijobsuk.co.uk/>

This website gives information on Apprenticeships and graduate careers in the travel and tourism industry including, Digital Marketing, Retail, Finance and Engineering.

- <http://www.haystravel.org/>

Recruitment/vacancies.php Recruitment information and apprenticeships for Hays Travel.

- <https://jobs.ba.com/jobs/studentsgraduates/workexperience/howtoapply/>

Information on British Airways jobs and details of when you need to apply to do work experience.

- <https://www.flybe.com/careers/>

This gives details of Flybe careers and work experience placements.

- <https://careers.easyjet.com/>

Operations control, Engineering and Technology roles

Food and Hospitality:

- www.tastesuccess.co.uk

Discover careers in the food and drink industry.

Intelligence, Security and Services:

- <https://www.mi5.gov.uk/careers>

- <https://www.sis.gov.uk>

- <https://www.gchq-careers.co.uk>

MI5, MI6 and GCHQ offer a range of training, development and career opportunities for school leavers and graduates. Find out more about what it's like to work for the secret services, what they do and what they can offer you. Many roles from IT and Technical to English Language or Language Specialists, Administrative, Software Engineering and Cyber Security.

- www.policecouldyou.co.uk

The site offers general information on joining the police force in the UK. It also details opportunities to get into an apprenticeship with the Police, what the entry level requirements are. |

- <https://apply.army.mod.uk/> www.royalnavy.mod.uk/careers www.raf.mod.uk/careers

Explore careers in the armed forces.

Housing:

- www.cih.org

Working in housing is not just about the building - it's about making a positive difference to people's lives, their communities, and their life chances by providing them with a decent home and environment in which to live. Over 150,000 people are estimated to work in the affordable housing industry in the UK. A career in housing is exciting and can provide an incredible variety of options. Put simply - if you want to make a positive difference, working in housing is for you!

Volunteering and Work Experience:

- www.do-it.org.uk

Explore and apply for volunteering opportunities in your area. ▪

- <https://vinspired.com/>

Lots of useful information on finding a voluntary work placement.

- <http://www.shell-livewire.org>

Online community for young entrepreneurs aged 16-30.

- www.princes-trust.org.uk

Detailed information and help for anyone thinking of becoming self-employed

- www.disabilityrightsuk.org

Advice on Disability Rights.

- www.gapmedics.co.uk

Offers opportunities for medical work experience and hospital volunteer projects for 16–25-year-olds. Interested in becoming a doctor, dentist, nurse or midwife? Applying to study medicine, nursing, midwifery, healthcare or dentistry at university? Studying biomedical sciences or applying for graduate entry medicine?

- <https://www.ncsyes.co.uk/>

If you are 15 to 17 and looking to get the most out of your summer, join the National Citizen Service for a vast experience! Meet new people, make life-long friends, and gain new skills for your CV. Worldwide and European Study:

- <https://www.studyoptions.com/>

Study Options is a free, independent, expert service for people looking to study in Australia and New Zealand. The official representative of Australian and New Zealand universities and colleges in the UK and Ireland. The site supports the application process.

- www.fulbright.co.uk

The US-UK Educational Commission (Fulbright Commission) fosters mutual cultural understanding through educational exchanges between the US and the UK.

▪ www.hotcoursesabroad.com

This site explores courses in overseas universities. Detailing courses available in popular overseas locations as well as discussing important issues such as finance, accommodation and visa requirements. It includes information on scholarships.

▪ <http://astarfuture.co.uk>

A Star Future Ltd provides information about international higher education opportunities to students, parents and advisors, including choosing the right university and course, the application process, entry requirements, financial information, tuition fees, the cost of living. It offers an online service as well as giving presentations in schools

▪ www.studyineurope.eu

The site is easy to use and would be suitable use to find out general information about; admission requirements, grading systems, tuition fees etc. There is also a series of articles giving tips and advice on student life abroad. For students who want to study entirely in English, Study in Europe provides a database of programmes taught in English.

▪ www.eunicas.co.uk

Eunicas is an independent application support service. Want to study abroad? this is the website for you. Find out where you can study and what courses are on offer

UK Universities:

▪ www.ucas.com

Guidance associated with all your options from universities to the points required, conservatoires, and exploring career options and the requirements. Includes an Open Days finder for universities across the UK.

▪ www.ukcoursefinder.com

Clear information on university courses including a nationwide course search. ▪ www.direct.gov.uk/studentfinance This site provides up to date information on student finance, fees & help available.

▪ <https://www.russellgroup.ac.uk/>

The Russell Group represents 24 leading UK universities which are committed to maintaining the very best research, this site is aimed at all students considering A-levels and university options.

▪ <https://www.thecompleteuniversityguide.co.uk/>

University league tables online, alongside a wide range of information on topics including universities, courses, preparing for university and careers

▪ <https://www.topuniversities.com/>

Information about worldwide universities and top tips for student life.

▪ <https://unistats.direct.gov.uk>

The official website for comparing UK higher education course data. It includes official data on each university and college's satisfaction scores in the National Student Survey, jobs and salaries after study and other key information for prospective students.

▪ <http://university.which.co.uk>

The free & independent way to search & compare UK degree courses & universities from Which? – find the best one for you, with insider tips. Useful section to calculate living costs in different areas.

▪ <https://www.grows.ac.uk/>

One of the most important questions when choosing what to study, where to study it - and even whether to study it - is 'Will I get a job at the end?' Another important question is 'What will I earn?' Grows is here to answer those questions. BC4me is independent. ▪ www.applytouni.com A useful website answering all your questions about applying to Uni, clearing, courses, fees, finance, personal statements, Uni guides, Uni league tables and open days.

Apprenticeships and Traineeships:

▪ www.findapprenticeship.service.gov.uk and www.gov.uk/apply-apprenticeship or www.gov.uk/find-traineeship

The National Government sponsored website for information on apprenticeships, traineeships and the vacancies database and option to apply online.

▪ <https://www.getmyfirstjob.co.uk/>

Apprenticeship and traineeship opportunities and matching site.

▪ www.remit.co.uk

Remit Training delivers structured Apprenticeship programmes in the Motor, IT, Business, Food, Hospitality and Health and Social Care industries across the UK.

▪ <http://www.engineering-apprenticeships.co.uk/>

Find out more about an engineering apprenticeship. The UK is crying out for more skilled engineers. Review the successful case studies of the rich and famous.

▪ www.apprenticeshipguide.co.uk

It is full of information on what Apprenticeships you can study, how you apply, who offers the apprenticeships schemes, and much, much more. Have a look at the industry sectors to decide and see what is on offer.

www.ratemyapprenticeship.co.uk

▪ www.careermap.co.uk

Many apprenticeship offerings, jobs and training options, along with videos focused on apprenticeship experiences and roles in a variety of companies.

▪ www.damartraining.com/legal-apprenticeships

Damar Training is a specialist provider of legal apprentice recruitment and training.

▪ <https://www.citb.co.uk/about-citb/jobs-at-citb/>

CITB is about helping people decide whether working in construction is right for them. It brings together all the information you will need to choose a rewarding and exciting career in the industry, tells you how you can apply for an apprenticeship and what working in construction is really like.

▪ www.jtltraining.com

JTL, the leading training provider to the building services engineering sectors, works with 3,500 business and supports 9,700 apprentices. Job and Apprenticeship Vacancies

▪ www.future-talent.com

Future-talent.com is designed to show you the alternatives to going to university. Apprenticeships, internships, courses, training and gap years. Predominantly a job board but also a mix of information and case studies related to the sectors that you may be interested in pursuing.

- www.studentladder has information on apprenticeships including degree apprenticeships
- www.notgoingtouni has information on apprenticeships including degree apprenticeships

Local colleges offer apprenticeship vacancies so it's worth looking on their sites.

www.indeed.co.uk

Has vacancies including part time and full-time jobs, apprenticeships and graduate opportunities both locally and nationally. Many retail companies and fast-food chains advertise on their own websites so if you are looking for a job register on the site to receive notifications.

www.totaljobs.co.uk

Has vacancies as above.

Labour Market Information:

Use to look at trends in the Labour Market nationally and locally and employment opportunities within sectors of industry

- www.lmiforall.org.uk
- www.icanbea.org.uk
- www.lancashireskillshub.co.uk