Pastoral Support

It is important that all boys at LRGS know who to turn to if they are in trouble or are uncertain of what to do. There is always someone who can help but those listed below are particularly important.

Form Teacher - For almost every problem where a pupil is uncertain, this should be the first port of call. The form teacher is the key person to help in matters such as lost property, sanctions, academic worries, uncertainty of the geography of the school, being teased or bullied.

Housemaster - Boarders may choose their Housemaster/Matrons or other staff who work in the boarding houses, as the first person to turn to.

Head of Year – The Head of Year can also help in all circumstances if the form teacher is unavailable. Mrs Page is Head of Year 7, Mr Young is Head of Year 8 & 9, Mr Rosbottom is Deputy Head of Year 8 & 9, Mr Davies-Taylor is Head of Year 10, Mr Jacques is Head of Year 11 and Mrs Boak is Head of Middle School. If you cannot find them, Mrs Gibbon in Wyresdale house will give them a message. Sixth Form students should see Mrs Gibson, Head of Year 12 or Mr Fisher, Head of Year 13 or Mr Martin, Head of Sixth Form.

Deputy Head Pastoral - Mr Hallsworth is responsible for all pastoral issues across the whole school. He is always happy to help with any issues or concerns you may have.

Prefects - Prefects can be relied upon to offer helpful advice and guidance.

Peer mentors - These are volunteer Sixth Formers who are recruited to support boys with aspects of their school work. They are an invaluable source of support.

School Office Staff - The staff in Lee House and Wyresdale House are always a useful source of information and help if in difficulty.

Medical Centre - For all medical concerns. If you feel ill or have an accident during the day first tell your teacher. You may then be directed to the Medical Centre. If you are taken ill or are hurt during break or lunch ask a prefect or go to the Medical Centre.

Learning Support – The School SENCO Mrs Jenkinson and the Learning Support Assistants support boys with identified learning support needs. Mrs Jenkinson can be contacted via Wyresdale House.

Other Important Contacts - You can email support@lrgs.org.uk, text the bullying line on 07748188141 or complete a form kept in the Information Centre.
