

Good morning, everyone

Lancashire's High Sheriff (Helen Bingley), Deputy Mayor (Hamish Mills), ladies and gentlemen - boys and girls and our special guests.

On behalf of my fellow trustees but more importantly, all the staff here at Lancaster Royal Grammar School, I welcome You all to our 2024 Speech Day!

It's wonderful to see you all here today and I'd like to thank everyone of you for making the effort to be here in Lancaster's town hall this morning.

I want to welcome our special guest today an Old Lancastrian, Mr John Gleasure, who has agreed to present the various prizes, and who I'll talk about a bit later.

John has brought with him today his mother and father - Ann & Bob plus, his brother David, an OL who also boarded here at LRGS, as well as three of his friends who are Old Lancastrians.

Nick George, Martyn Howie and the actor Sean Gilder who did an acting masterclass yesterday with some of the students – Thanks Sean.

The three were also, boarders here at LRGS - so it's nice to see you all here today and to Mr & Mrs Gleasure - gentlemen you are most welcome I hope you all have a great day with some interesting memories!!

I would now like to invite our Headmaster Dr. Christopher Pyle to present his report.

Thank you.
